

Amsterdam. 15th Jan. '20.

Dear Miss Parlow,

How kind of you to send me such lovely letters about my accident.
My foot is better now and I was again on Monday and Tuesday in Litzkeht and Haarlem with W. den Gelberg and the orchestra.

I thank you also so much for your beautiful photo, it is a pretty remembrance of your last time in Amsterdam and your concerts which I cannot forget.
I like your playing so very much and I was already your great admirer as a little boy.

I will now study very hard and hope to be able to play for you when you come here next year after your great travels through the world.

I wish you and your Mother a very good travel. I am sorry that you go so early in the morning. I was intended to go to the train, but now I must bid you and your dear Mother farewell.

I shall wait with impatience a year long your coming to Holland again and for your first concert in Amsterdam.

Many kind regards to you and your Mother

Sincerely yours admirer,

Mary Fille
